Transparency Statement

We have requested your personal data for the purposes of consultation. Coillte may process your personal data for the sole purpose of maintaining a register so we may contact you. Coillte is the data controller in relation to personal data that you send to us. We process and store your personal data on the basis of our consultation commitment, to keep stakeholders abreast of developments within Coillte.

Coillte has taken the appropriate technical and organisational security measures to protect your personal data from loss, abuse and unauthorised access. The number of employees at Coillte that have access to the personal data is limited. Access to the personal data has only been granted only to the individuals at Coillte that need to process the personal data in accordance with the purposes that have been stated above. The only third party granted access to these data is to external auditors of the forest management standards to which Coillte subscribe who independently verify our consultation processes.

Coillte applies different retention periods for different categories of your personal data. The personal data supplied above will be retained until you wish to remove yourself from the stakeholder list. You have a number of rights in relation to your personal data under Data Protection legislation, for more information on your rights access Coillte's Privacy Policy at www.coillte.ie For more information on how Coillte may process your personal data, contact Coillte by email at info@coillte.ie
